

Wednesday, July 2, 2008

GIRLS ON THE RUN — Pure Pilates of New Providence, a full service Pilates studio offering a variety of private and group classes, was a sponsor of the recent Girls on the Run event on June 7 in Madison. Pictured at the Pure Pilates station on race day is owner Carol Crincoli, center, who said: "I believe fitness is a life long commitment. Empowering young girls to believe in themselves and their individual strengths is key to developing life long skills." With her are Ray and Caitlyn Massaro who both participated in the race. For more information on Pure Pilates visit the website at purepilatesnj.com.

The Independent Press