PILATES FOR PINK — Pure Pilates, New Providence, a full-service Pilates studio offering group and individual instruction, raised $650 to aid breast cancer research, during the studio's Pilates for Pink initiative. During the course of one fall weekend, all Pure Pilates instructors donated their instructional time, and clients donated a minimum of $10 to participate in a class. All proceeds were donated to breast cancer research. Seen here in a magic circle class are, from left, clients Susan LaMaita of Berkeley Heights; Kathy Celardo of Fanwood; Cathy Heisinger of New Providence; Pure Pilates instructors Diana Schlobohm of Chatham; Vicki Somoya of Keyport; clients Rico Crincoli of Linden; Jill Denninger of Morristown; and Mara Canlas of Edison.
